DETAILED ACTION

The following action is in response to the amendment received December 2, 2004.

Specification

The amendment to page 10 of the specification overcomes the objection to the disclosure set forth in the previous Office action. The objection is withdrawn.

Claim Objections

Claim 2 has been cancelled obviating the objection set forth in the previous Office action. The objection to claim 2 is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 5, 6, and 9-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. There does not appear to be support in the original disclosure for the claim limitation that "said spline extends to a location beneath said jaw clutch teeth", as called for in these claims. If this is intended to mean that the spline teeth extend to a location directly radially inward of the jaw clutch teeth, the disclosure does not support this limitation. The figures show the splines stopping short of radial alignment with the jaw clutch teeth.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 5, 6, and 9-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The new recitation that the spline extends to a location "beneath said jaw clutch teeth" is unclear. No upper or lower direction has been defined such that the intended meaning of "beneath" can be determined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 5, 6, and 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a and e) as being anticipated by Shimomura('017). The claimed method steps of forging the clutch gear with the boss and forming the ring-like groove are disclosed by Shimomura (column 1, lines 50-61). Structural limitations do not carry patentable weight in these claims to the method of manufacture.

Claims 5, 6, and 14-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hoguchi(EP 0 581 483 A1). The claimed method steps of forging the clutch gear with the boss and forming the ring-like groove are disclosed by Hoguchi (column 5, lines 8-44). Structural limitations do not carry patentable weight in these claims to the method of manufacture.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 3, 4, 7, and 8 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

The amendment received December 2, 2004 overcomes the objections to the specification and claims set forth on pages 2-3 of the previous Office action. The previous rejection of claims 5-7 under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, is overcome by applicant's response. A new rejection of claims 5, 6, and 9-17 under 35 USC 112, first and second paragraphs, is necessitated by the amendment, however. The reference to

"a location beneath said jaw clutch" is considered to be indefinite and to lack basis in the original disclosure.

The claimed method steps are considered to be the same steps performed in manufacturing the prior art devices. Structural differences are recited which are not seen to carry weight in the claims to the method. The structural differences do distinguish claims 1, 3, 4, 7, and 8 to the clutch gear, as set forth above.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

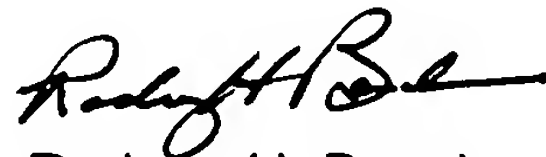

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
